

Edward R. Simms

March 14, 1837 – March 17, 1922

Enlisted on April 8, 1861, Co. D, SC 2nd Regiment (Sumter Volunteers) – Transferred to Co. K between July, 1861 and January, 1862

Reenlisted on January 28, 1862 into Capt. A.B. Rhett's Co (became Capt. Ficklings Co. Brooks Light Artillery)

Discharged on April 9, 1865 at Appomattox Court House.

Highest Rank: Corporal

Wounded four times: Back injuries / Deaf in one ear from shell explosion

Muster Roll listings from:

Capt. J.S. Richardson's Company, 2 (Palmetto) Regiment, SC Volunteers, Co D

Capt. J.S. Richardson's Company, 2 (Palmetto) Regiment, SC Volunteers, Co K

Capt. A.B. Rhett's Co., 1st. Reg Light Artillery (Col. W.B. FitzGerald): Jan. 1862

Capt. A.B. Rhett's Co., 1st., Light Artillery, SC Volunteers: Feb. – May 1862

Capt. A.B. Rhett's Co., Lee's Reserve Battalion, Light Artillery: Jul. – Oct. 1862

Capt. A.B. Rhett's Co., Alexander's Light Artillery Battalion: Jan. – Apr. 1863

Capt. W.W. Fickling's Co. (F), Alexander's Battalion, Light Artillery: May – Dec. 1863

Capt. W.W. Fickling's Co. (F), Huger's Battalion, Light Artillery: Mar. 1864 – Jan. 1865 (Corp.)